OF KILLING MISS MULLENS

Both Were Taken to Cambridge, Mass., Court To-day and Held on the Charge-Story of the Crime.

Cambridge, Mass., April 8.—James Mantir of Manchester, N. H., and Peter Delory of Somerville, charged with the murder of Annie Mullins at East Cam-

20 years old, was arrested for the mur der of Miss Annie Mullins, in Arlington on the night of March 27, 1908, and Peter Delorey, 18 years old, was held as an accessory. Dolory, it is said by the palice, told of the crime, placing the blame entirely upon his companion.

Spiropolos, when confronted last night by Dolory and after listening to Connect with the Congdon Murder the latters attalenant, collapsed and

The information which led to the arrest of the two men is understood to have been in the hands of the police for nearly a month and originated at a farm in Billerica, where the couple went after the crime. Delorey, according to the police of Cambridge and state detective Charles E. Byrnes, has made a complete confession, in which he admitted that he and Manitir dragged Annie Mullins into Squire's field after having made her acquaintance on Cambridge street, and that when she resisted the assault which they attempted Mantir cut her throat Spiropolos, since the murder, had been working in a barber shep in Manchester N. H., under the name of James Montey, while Delorey returned to his occupation as a butcher in Boston.

Chicago, April 3.—Vensenso Geraci, who is said by the police to be the leader of the Chicago Black Hand society, was arrested here yesterday in the office of Dr. Peter Cutrera from whom the Italian had demanded $8,000 on pain of death. Geraci, it is said, has given evidence concerning his associates in the plot and the police expect to arrest several others soon. It is thought that the numbers of the Chicago society are in elose touch with the New York gang that brought about the death of Lieutenant Petrosino of the New York police department recently in Italy.
